Families and the Gospel...

August 7 Luke 12:32-48

God expects us to be "faithful stewards" responsible for the gift of family He placed in our care. Remember Jesus' words today: "Much is required of the person entrusted with much." How are you doing with the relationships entrusted to you?

Scripture Reflection

"Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom." By qualifying "flock" with "little," Jesus is saying something about the unassuming nature of his disciples, who might be little in number, little in power, little in social standing or some combination of all of them. The unassuming, insignificant flock cannot rely on their power, strength or wealth to create a kingdom but must depend only on their faith in God.

Faith is following Jesus by attending to all the "little" things that seem unimportant or insignificant, as well as paying attention to all the "little" people we are tempted to forget or overlook. The faith of the "little flock" is a rejection of a sense of entitlement about what we deserve or have earned, replaced by a robust sense of God's grace and mercy for those who trust in God. Faith is this mixture of gladness, trust and hope as we allow God's steadfast love to transform us.

This faith manifests itself in a way of life that leads to a proper relationship to earthly possessions. A right relationship to things reflects that one's hopes are not just earthly but heavenly, "for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Yet detachment from possessions, especially seen in giving alms and other acts of generosity, transforms us by creating greater attachment to God and other people.

Today's Gospel is an urgent instruction to the disciples to be prepared for their own task of preaching the Good News of the Kingdom of God. Their plans for this future ministry are to rely more on their spiritual treasure than any material resource. Jesus asks them to be as vigilant as the servant who prepares for the return of the master of the household. And this vigilance is not merely waiting around for the master, it is time spent doing the will of the master.

- Jesus told his followers to cast aside fear because fear is not useful in the Kingdom.
- List two situations you dread, plus strategies for overcoming fear.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA NOTES.....

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Liturgical Reflection...

For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be. In the Gospel the Evangelist Luke calls the church to think of itself as a community of servants, taking care of one another, with one eye on the door for the Master's return. Do you see in your life the signs of a faithful and prudent servant? The day-to-day demands of life can so easily gain our attention and efforts. The Gospel challenge is to make sure we have our eyes set on the bigger picture. Can I name my treasure? What is most important to me? Where is my heart centered to-day? The Gospel challenges us to make sure our treasure is surrounded with love and mercy. Much will be required of the ones who are baptized and claimed for Christ.

2016, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

YEAR OF MERCY SUMMER ROAD TRIPS!

What better way to spend a summer afternoon as a "pilgrim" visiting three churches celebrating their 200th Anniversary founded by our own saint-in-progress, Servant of God, Reverend Demetrius Gallitzin. Plan to take a Sunday drive to Holy Name, Ebensburg, St. Patrick, Newry, and St. Thomas the Apostle, Bedford, the designated sites for the Holy Doors of the Jubilee of Mercy.

Prayer times have been scheduled at all three churches on August 14 and August 28. Prayers will be led in half hour intervals from 1:00 PM- 4:00 PM, beginning at 1:30PM. You may even want to include a visit to St. Michael of the Archangel Basilica, Loretto the site of the tomb of Father Gallitzin to top off your day! An added bonus is an opportunity to grow spiritually and gain a Plenary Indulgence of the Church during this special time.

Registration for CCD Classes - Cathedral of The Blessed Sacrament...

Students attending CCD classes for the 2016-2017 school year MUST register on Saturday, September 13th, before and after the 5:30 PM Mass.

Registration will also be available on Sunday, September 14th before and after all Masses.

New students MUST also bring a copy of their Baptismal Certificate when they register.

Bro. Shamus Charity Ride to Benefit the Dorothy Day Outreach Center

Bro. Shamus McGrenra, T.O.R. is on a mission to feed the hungry and clothe the naked. That is why he spends many weeks each year pedaling hundreds (sometimes thousands) of miles to raise money for the Dorothy Day Outreach Center at Saint Francis University.

This fall, he will travel through 10 states, biking a total of 1,500 miles to raise his goal of $40,000. "Cycling the Atlantic Coast for the Dorothy Day Outreach Center" will take Bro. Shamus on an eight-week journey from New York City to Sarasota, Fla. His ride will kick-off on September 9 from the New York Catholic Worker in lower Manhattan, originally founded by Dorothy Day in the 1930s. Despite being diagnosed with colon cancer in 2013, Bro. Shamus has continued his charity ride, continually increasing both his distance and fundraising goals.

To learn more about his mission or to make a donation to support his charity ride, visit francis.edu/charityride.
