RE: POST-ABORTION HEALING—Parish PR

Please consider printing the Project Rachel number on the front of your bulletin or inside each week. Seeing the number regularly allows the person to make the call when they are ready or to share the number with someone else.

For parish bulletins: (perhaps on the front of the bulletin)

Post-abortion healing: 814-884-8000 Confidential, compassionate.

Longer version for parish website or newsletter:

Post-abortion healing: 814-884-8000 Confidential, compassionate. For women, men, relatives, friends hurt by abortion. Many whose child was aborted were uninformed, coerced, pressured, even helpless. The Church wants to walk with you on a path of healing and reconciliation with God, the Church, your child, yourself. Helpful websites: noparh.org; abortionchangesyou.com; menandabortion.info (not .org); rachelsvineyard.org.

General Intercessions: (especially helpful during holidays when many return to church.) That those who involved in abortions may experience the open and merciful arms of Mother Church calling them to healing, Let us pray to the Lord.

An astonishing number of people have been wounded by abortion. Some are your current or former parishioners—the mothers and fathers of these aborted children, the baby's grandparents who mourn privately, friends and relatives who encouraged the abortion or suffer from its effects. These people—God's people—need the healing touch of Christ's mercy.

Father J.D.'s thoughts: Somewhat resenting the Bureau's presumptuous tone, I welcome it's entrance into the anti-abortion arena. I'm not aware of any pro-life activist - let alone Catholic priest - who intentionally or even unconsciously "beats up" on women who have had abortions. I do know many stealth pro-aborts who very consciously and with devious intention use a syrupy kind of "compassion" to cover over the reality of the heinousness that abortion is. WWJD. Read John 8:1-11
