THE ROMAN MISSAL

Liturgical Reflection ... from the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 S. Logan Blvd., Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648

Certain gestures at Mass intensify our witness to the oneness we celebrate in the crucified and risen Lord. The third edition of the Roman Missal directs STRIKING OUR BREAST during the Confiteor (I Confess). During the words "through my own fault," each member of the liturgical assembly is to strike his or her breast. This liturgical gesture can strengthen awareness that my sin is my fault. During these Lenten days when the Church calls for intense prayer, fasting and almsgiving, striking our breasts can strengthen the realization that sinfulness depends totally on the mercy and forgiveness of God.

Church Fathers have assured us of two things: 1. Our loved ones who are in Purgatory need and benefit from our prayers. 2. Prayers said for those who have exited Purgatory are not wasted, but are "redirected" as expressed so beautifully in our Fatima Rosary Prayer: "Oh my Jesus save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to heaven especially those in most need of Thy mercy."

In an attempt to draw the two elements of body and soul back together as a single entity [the human person,] the Pastor has designated each day of the week as a day of prayer for fellow parishioners, friends, and relatives suffering from a particular set of medically identifiable conditions, like so:

Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Pray for victims of Cancer
Pray for victims of Cardiovascular Disease
Pray for victims of Arthritis
Pray for victims of Neuromuscular Disorders
Pray for victims of Emotional Disorders
Pray for victims of Diabetes
Pray for victims of Addictions
