GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires.

CHOOSING SIDES

My great concern is not whether God is on our side; my great concern is to be on God's side.

—Abraham Lincoln

SERVE THE POOR

Be diligent in serving the poor. Love the poor, honor them as you would Christ himself.

Scripture Reflection

In today's Gospel, we hear of Simon Peter's call. A fisherman by trade, he complains when Jesus tells him to take his boat into deep water and prepare for a catch. But before they know it, the nets are bursting and the boats so full that they are in danger of sinking. When Peter gets to shore, he is overcome with emotion, asking Jesus to leave him, because he feels he is not worthy of his presence.

The call of Simon Peter illustrates another of Luke's favorite themes, the encounter with grace in the everyday. The interaction between Jesus and Peter unfolds at first along lines completely in keeping with Peter's world: boats, sailing and fish. Jesus needs a boat to preach to the sizeable crowds that threaten to crush him. Why he chooses Peter's is never clear; Luke draws our attention instead to Jesus' reliance on Peter's skill. "He asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat." Luke also says nothing about Peter's sinfulness; it may have been nothing more than the rough behavior and foul speech that often accompany strenuous labor. Even after Peter responds to the grace he has encountered, Jesus speaks with metaphors from Peter's world: "From now on you will be catching men." Peter's normal day at work changed his life and the lives of countless others.

Divine salvation advances because unlikely characters say yes to grace. As Jesus transformed Peter, so must we, Christ's disciples, continue to seek out improbable champions of the Gospel and reveal the divine grace God constantly offers.

Can you think of someone, others may consider improbable, who may be called to priesthood, to a liturgical ministry, to assist the Saint Vincent dePaul Society?

- What gifts do you share in the building up of God's kingdom?

Luke 5:1-11

In today's gospel, Jesus asked Simon to start by "going a short distance." Later he asked Simon to "go into deeper water." The first step toward reconciliation is usually a "short distance" which gives us the courage to further "into deeper water." Reconciliation starts with the first short step!

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time (February 10)

Perhaps feelings of reluctance, inadequacy, and unworthiness have prevented us from fulfilling our portion of God's divine plan. May we meet Jesus' challenge, "Do not be afraid," with "Here I am, send me!"

Precious Blood of the Lord

Because of the seriousness of this flu season, Bishop Bartchak has asked that the Precious Blood of the Lord not be offered at Mass temporarily. It is the belief of the Catholic Church that the whole Body of Christ is present under either form of consecrated bread and wine. Also, the exchange of the sign of peace should avoid bodily contact. A reverent nod with eye contact and a smile will be the temporary practice. Reception of Holy Communion on the hand is encouraged; however, reception on the tongue may not be denied. These norms are in effect throughout the winter months or until the flu season is over.

F.I.R.E. Schedule

F.I.R.E. Class is today in the Cathedral Hall from 2:00 PM until 4:00 PM.

Liturgical Reflection...

Eucharistic

The celebration of the Eucharist is the center of the entire Christian life, both for the Church universal and in each faith community. The Eucharist contains the church's entire spiritual wealth, that is, Christ himself. He is our Passover and living bread. The celebration of the Eucharist in the sacrifice of the Mass is truly the origin and purpose of the worship that is shown to the Eucharist outside Mass.

Adoration

Reserved in the tabernacle, Christ is truly Emmanuel, God with us. Day and night he is in our midst; full of grace and truth, he dwells among us. Holy communion and Worship of the Eucharist Outside Mass, 1975, Numbers 1 and 2

OUR LADY URGES US TO PRAY THE HOLY ROSARY

FOR

PEACE AND OFFER

SACRIFICES BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE!

Sanctuary of Saint Bernadette Soubirous, Nevers France

Since 3rd August 1925, following her beatification, Bernadette's body lies in a glass shrine in the chapel of the convent of Saint- Gildard in Nevers.

Bernadette's body, when exhumed for the process of beatification, was found to be intact, to the surprise of those present.

St. Bernadette's Chapel

Built on the ruins of Saint Gildard's Abbey, this simple and bright chapel was consecrated in 1856 when the community of the Sisters of Charity of Nevers moved into this new building.

The Museum

The museum highlights the various steps in Bernadette's life: the cachot, the grotto, Hospice of Lourdes and her time in Nevers. Some photographs and artifacts depict her daily life.

Holy Cross Oratory

Bernadette died at the age of 35 in the infirmary, which is now Holy Cross Oratory. During her thirteen years at Saint Gildard, she served as assistant-nurse, head-nurse and sacristan during which time she was often ill.

The Facade

On 7th July 1866, Bernadette Soubirous accompanied by the Superior of Lourdes and two other young girls, crossed the threshold of the Motherhouse in Nevers.

Engraved in stone, above the entrance, the words 'Deus Charitas Est' which Bernadette would have seen, describe the spirit of the Congregation since its foundation.

The Cloister

A cloister, with huge glass windows, overlooks the flowerbeds. Its sunlit corridors lead to lounges, reading rooms, conference rooms and dining rooms.

Novitiate Chapel

Here in July 1866, wearing her Pyrenean costume, Bernadette told the story of the apparitions for the last time to 300 Sisters.

St. Joseph's Chapel

Bernadette Soubirous died on 16th April, 1879 and was interred in this chapel for 40 years. The chapel is located in the middle of the sanctuary gardens, at the end of an avenue lined with beautiful lime trees.

Gite' Saint Michel

This 'gite' is situated in the gardens and detached from the Sanctuary. It is wheelchair accessible and can accommodate up to 15 people. It is made available to pilgrims en route to St. James of Compostella, also to hikers.

Our Lady of the Waters

The paths which cross the large gardens lead to this statue in front of which Bernadette chose to pray. She used to say: "It is she who reminds me most of the Lady I saw."

Bernadette Soubirous in Lourdes

On January 7th 1844, Bernadette Soubirous was born in Lourdes, a small town in the Pyrenean mountains, to a miller's family who enjoyed relative prosperity during the early years of Bernadette's life.

Bernadette's prayer

"O Jesus, give me I pray ...

the bread of humility, the bread of obedience, the bread of charity, the bread of strength to break my will, and make it one with yours, the bread of patience to bear the pain my heart endures, the bread to see you and you alone in all things and always!" "I put my hope in you, Lord. Be my house of refuge because you are my strength." "He is sufficient for me ... Jesus alone for riches."
