Dittoes to last week's groveling announcement !

Sunday (today) July 4	NOTE: For the next six months on each first weekend's Bulletin we will have a pull-out brochure containing Adult Reading Material dealing with body/spirit issues. These "CareNotes" are Catholic in spirit but they are not doctrinal tracts. You don't have to believe what you read in them, but what they say might help you live out what you believe in practice. The first CareNote is attached to the other side of this page.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST

1322 The holy Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Those who have been raised to the dignity of the royal priesthood by Baptism and configured more deeply to Christ by Confirmation participate with the whole community in the Lord's own sacrifice by means of the Eucharist.

1323 "At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again, and so to entrust to his beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of his death and resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a Paschal banquet 'in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.'"

1324 The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." "The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesial ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch."

1325 "The Eucharist is the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being. It is the culmination both of God's action sanctifying the world in Christ and of the worship men offer to Christ and through him to the Father in the Holy Spirit."

1326 Finally, by the Eucharistic celebration we already unite ourselves with the heavenly liturgy and anticipate eternal life, when God will be all in all.

Symptoms of Procrastination

- Over-organizing a project by meticulously straightening out your desk before starting
- Reviewing unrelated mail, e-mail or phone messages
- Waiting for the right time to get started
- Being easily distracted
- Underestimating the time needed to do a project
- Being too tired to start or finish a project
- Trivializing a task by convincing yourself that it is not worth doing
- Having vague, rather than specific goals
- Lacking action plans to achieve your goals.

Reflections on Procrastinating

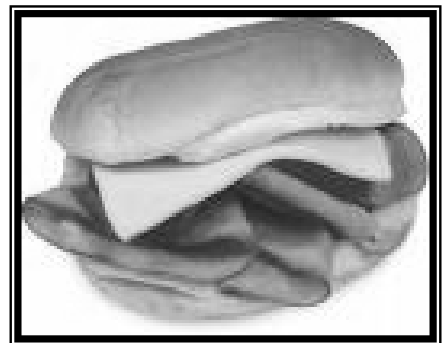

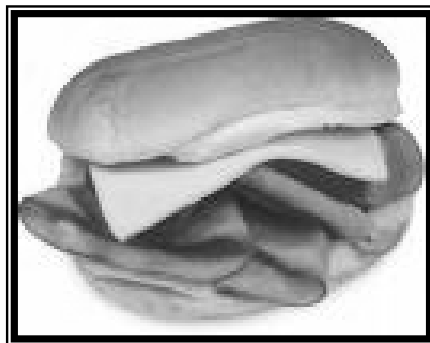

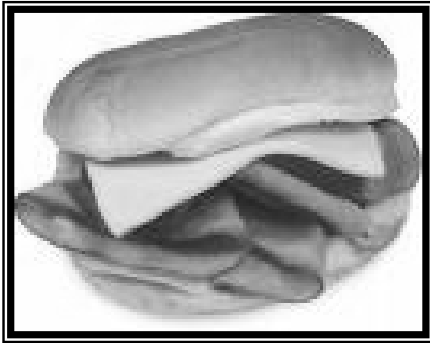

Never leave till tomorrow that which you can do today.

Benjamin Franklin

There are only two mistakes one can make along the road to truth: (1) not going all the way; and (2) and not starting .
