MESSAGES:

O.L.F. Year For Catholic Devotions June 2011 - June 2012

July is dedicated to devotion to The Most Precious Blood

PREPARING FOR THE NEW TRANSLATION OF THE MASS

Why a New Translation?

The prayers of the Mass express our Catholic beliefs and the more clearly we can express those beliefs, the more our faith can grow and be nourished. Many Church leaders, most prominently the late Blessed Pope John Paul II, felt that many of the current translations of the Latin were done hastily after the Second Vatican Council in the early 1960s, when the Church throughout the world began praying parts of the Mass in the languages of the people rather than in Latin. The new translation that we will be using has taken nearly a decade to produce and, as Pope John Paul II desired, is closer to the original Latin.

What Will Be Happening with the Prayers at Mass?

The Roman Missal is the large book that we are accustomed to seeing the priest use at our Eucharistic liturgies. It contains the official prayers of the Mass. In the early part of this century, the late Blessed Pope John Paul II called for the original Latin Missal (the official prayer book for Mass for the entire Catholic Church worldwide) to be re-translated into the various languages prayed throughout the world. He felt that our current English translation could be improved. He called for new translations that would be much more faithful to the original Latin texts, so that all Catholics throughout the world would become more closely united by praying translations that were closer to the original. The words that we pray at Mass express our beliefs; it is important that the translations capture and express these beliefs clearly. The translation process has come to a culmination now, and on the First Sunday of Advent we will begin using this new translation at Mass.

Daily Prayer Suggestions

One way to prepare for the new translation of the Mass is to make the new words and phrases part of your daily prayer, perhaps following the suggestions below. You might also want to remember in your prayers those who are working to help all of us to pray in these new words, and stop bad-mouthing and opposing their efforts, especially the priests who will be learning almost the entire Missal anew.

Use "We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you" (from the Gloria) as a daily prayer. Repeat it several times, focusing on these different ways that we pray to God.

Reflect on the different ways the Creed describes Christ: (Light from Light; begotten, not made).

Include "consubstantial with the Father" as you pray about how the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit are one God.

Repeat the prayer "It is right and just to give thanks to the Lord our God" several times during the day.

Find a copy of the new memorial acclamations and use one as your daily offering in the morning, your night prayer before bedtime, or a table grace.

When you walk through your door at home, pray "Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed."
