GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEP- ER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 7, 2024

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, “You’ll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try.” Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won’t work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week’s words from St Paul, “I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9).” Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn’t promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let’s face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it’s there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

Sisters of Charity OF NAZARETH

The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth have been invited to the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament and Our Lady of Fatima Parish as part of the annual Mission Cooperative Plan 2024. Sister Sarah Geier, SCN will speak at all Masses the weekend of July 20-21, 2024. The Sisters of Charity of Nazareth were founded in Bardstown, Kentucky in 1812. Through their ministries of healthcare, education and social service, SCN’s carry the message of Christ’s love to those who most need help throughout the world. The Sisters will share stories about their ministries here in the United States as well as in their foreign missions and invite us to be part of their ongoing commitment by participating through our prayers and financial help. A special collection will be taken up for their mission. We know that, as always, you will be as generous as you can.

This year’s Bosco’s Friends Helping Friends Event is on Tuesday, October 22, from 8:00 AM to 11 PM. The $5.00 Discount Pass is good for 25% off prices (exclusions apply). The passes are available after Mass and in the parish office. 100% of your $5.00 donation goes to our parish.

Catholic Ministries Drive

The 2024 Catholic Ministries Drive is taking place. Our sacrificial gift of prayer and treasure will make an immediate and lasting impact on our ministries that focus on evangelization, serving those in need, and the formation of our priests and deacons.

During Lent, and throughout the year, we are challenged to renew our spiritual devotions and duties—and one of those holy duties is to support the Church. This year, our campaign's theme is Encountering Christ. During this time of Eucharistic Revival, Encountering Christ is an invitation to grow in our living relationship with Christ in the Eucharist, to open our hearts to serving our brothers and sisters, and to fulfill our holy duty of supporting the Church by gifts of time, talent, and treasure.

Please prayerfully consider making a donation this coming week or in the near future. Our diocese's ministries need our support. Our parish's target is $9,813. So far, $9,374 has been received in pledges/gifts from 30 donors. 96% of Target. Thank you.

Our parish is having an indoor picnic at the St. Stan's Club on Sunday, August 25, beginning at 1:00 P.M.

UPMC Needs Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

The Pastoral Care Department at UPMC Altoona is looking for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion for current openings on Saturdays. If you have a desire to bring the Blessed Sacrament to sick and suffering Catholic hospital patients, please contact Tony Conrad at 814-889-4323 for Visitation Parish in Johnstown is sponsoring An Irish Evening with Full Kilt on Saturday, July 13, from 7:00 PM until 10:00 PM in the Visitation Parish Hall at 1127 McKinley Avenue, Johnstown. Tickets are being sold for $20.00 and will include admission, a full meal, beer, soda, and water.
