THIS GREAT SACRAMENT OF LOVE

A couple of months before his death Bishop Fulton J. Sheen was interviewed on national television. One of the questions was this: "Bishop Sheen, you have inspired millions of people all over the world. Who inspired you? Was it a Pope?"

Bishop Sheen responded that it was not a Pope, a cardinal, another bishop, or even a priest or a nun. It was a little Chinese girl of eleven years of age. He explained that when the Communists took over China, they imprisoned a priest in his own rectory near the Church. After they locked him up in his own house, the priest was horrified to look out of his window and see the Communists proceed into the Church, where they went into the sanctuary and broke into the tabernacle. In an act of hateful desecration, they took the ciborium and threw it on the floor with all of the Sacred Hosts spilling out. The priest knew exactly how many Hosts were in the ciborium: thirty-two. When the Communists left, they either did not notice, or didn't pay any attention to a small girl praying in the back of the Church who saw everything that had happened.

That night the little girl came back. Slipping past the guard at the priest's house, she went inside the Church. There she made a holy hour of prayer, an act of love to make up for the act of hatred. After her holy hour she went into the sanctuary, knelt down, bent over and with her tongue received Jesus in Holy Communion, (since it was not permissible for laymen to touch the Sacred Host with their hands.) The little girl continued to come back each night to make her holy hour and receive Jesus in Holy Communion on her tongue. On the thirty-second night, after she had consumed the last and thirty-second host, she accidentally made a noise and woke the guard who was sleeping. He ran after her, caught her, and beat her to death with the butt of his rifle.

This act of heroic martyrdom was witnessed by the priest as he watched grief-stricken from his bedroom window. When Bishop Sheen heard the story he was so inspired that he promised God he would make a holy hour of prayer before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament everyday of his life.

If this frail, little child could give testimony and witness to the world concerning the real and wonderful Presence of her Savior in the Blessed Sacrament, then the Bishop was absolutely bound by all that was right and true, to do the same. His sole desire from then on was to bring the world to the burning Heart of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. The little girl showed the Bishop what true courage and zeal really is; how faith could overcome all fear, how true love for Jesus in the Eucharist must transcend life itself. What is hidden in the Sacred Host is the glory of His love. The sun in the sky is symbolic of the Son of God in the Blessed Sacrament. This is why most monstrances are in the form of a sunburst. As the sun is the natural source of all energy, the Blessed Sacrament is the supernatural source of all grace and love. The Blessed Sacrament is JESUS, the Light of the world. Excerpt from an article "Let the SON shine out" by Rev. Martin Lucia

THE LAST SUPPER

The Passover meal that Jesus shared with His friends on the night before He was crucified is also called the Last Supper. Catholics consider this the first Mass or the first Eucharist. Both, the sacraments of Eucharist and Holy Orders, were instituted by Christ at the Last Supper.

THE INSTITUTION OF THE EUCHARIST

All four evangelists, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John give an account of the institution of the Eucharist in their Gospels.

According to Luke, Jesus "took some bread, and when he had given thanks, broke it and gave it to his disciples saying, 'This is my body which will be given for you; do this as a memorial of me.' Jesus did the same with the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood which will be poured out for you'" (Lk. 22: 19-20).

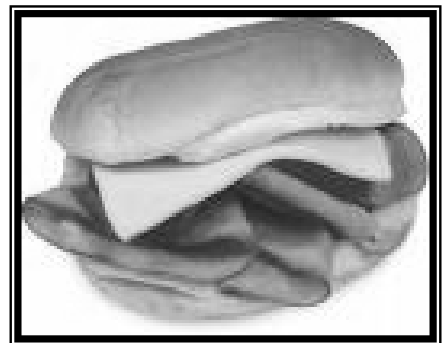

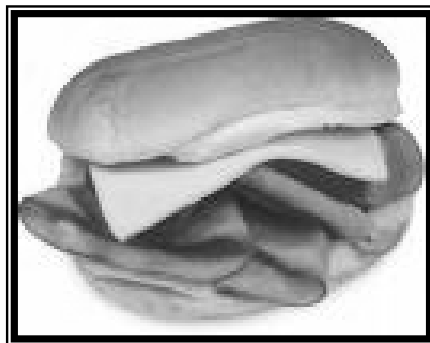

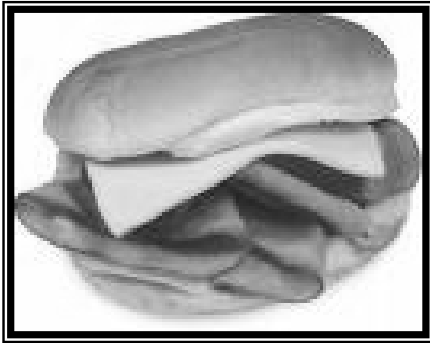

In this brief excerpt from Luke's Gospel, Jesus makes it known that the Eucharist is a sacrifice, a meal and a memorial of the New Covenant which is offered up for salvation.

A Christian...

is a mind through which Christ thinks,
is a heart through which Christ lives,
is a voice through which Christ speaks,
is a hand through which Christ helps.
