

Third Sunday of Lent

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all of them were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. Yet God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

These things happened as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil things, as they did. Do not grumble as some of them did, and suffered death by the destroyer.

1Cor 10

Jesus said to them in reply, “Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means!

But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!

Jesus said: “But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish [as they did!”]

Know and Teach the Faith

C.C.C. 2357 Homosexuality refers to relations between men or between women who experience an exclusive or predominant sexual attraction toward persons of the same sex. It has taken a great variety of forms through the centuries and in different cultures. Its psychological genesis remains largely unexplained. Basing itself on Sacred Scripture, which presents homosexual acts as acts of grave depravity [Cf. Gen 19:1-29; Rom 1:24-27; 1 Cor 6:10; 1 Tim 1:10], tradition has always declared that "homosexual acts are intrinsically disordered." [Cf.] They are contrary to the natural law. They close the sexual act to the gift of life. They do not proceed from a genuine affective and sexual complementarity. Under no circumstances can they be approved.

C.C.C. 2358 The number of men and women who have deep-seated homosexual tendencies is not negligible. They do not choose their homosexual condition; for most of them it is a trial. They must be accepted with respect, compassion, and sensitivity. Every sign of unjust discrimination in their regard should be avoided. These persons are called to fulfill God's will in their lives and, if they are Christians, to unite to the sacrifice of the Lord's Cross the difficulties they may encounter from their condition.

Let's clearly demonstrate once again that the only Faith Community in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown named for Our Lady of Fatima is able and willing to pull its own weight as a vibrantly active parish. Whenever we are tempted to think of our little community as existing in isolation, we are urged to remember the words of St. Ignatius of Antioch: "Wherever the Bishop is, there is the Church founded by Christ." To support the Diocese is as much an obligation as it is to support the parish. As your pastor gets older and less healthy the old saying - You can't take it with you - makes more and more sense.
