100th Anniversary of Fatima Apparitions—

To Do, As given by Our Lady of Fatima...

[] Pray the Rosary daily for peace in the world.

Our Lady said to the three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal on July 12, 1917, "Continue to say the Rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, to obtain the peace of the world and the end of the war, because only she can obtain it." She reiterated that call throughout her apparitions there, saying in May 1917, "Say the Rosary every day, to bring peace to the world and an end to the war (World War I)," and in September, "Continue the Rosary, my children. Say it every day that the war may end."

[] Perform and spread devotions to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Make reparations for blasphemies and outrages against Mary's Immaculate Heart, especially by performing the Five First Saturdays devotion. Our Lady said on July 13:

You have seen hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them, God wishes to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If what I say to you is done, many souls will be saved and there will be peace. The war is going to end; But if people do not cease offending God, a worse one will break out during the Pontificate of Pius XI. When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that this is the great sign given you by God that he is about to punish the world for its crimes, by means of war, famine, and persecutions of the Church and of the Holy Father. To prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded Russia will be converted, and there will be peace; if not, she will spread her errors throughout the world, causing wars and persecutions of the church. The good will be martyred; the Holy Father will have much to suffer; various nations will be annihilated. In the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and she shall be converted, and a period of peace will be granted to the world.

- The Blessed Mother to Sr. Lucia Dos Santos on Dec. 10, 1925:

See, my daughter, my Heart encircled by thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. Do You, at least, strive to console me. Tell them that I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company a quarter of an hour, meditating on the ... mysteries of the Rosary.

[] Pray, fast, and do penance for the conversion of poor sinners and to make reparation for the sins of the world.

[] Consecrate yourself to the Immaculate Heart.

Fatima Prayers

On May 13, 1917, Our Lady first appeared to three shepherd children in Fatima, Portugal — Lucia dos Santos age 10, and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto, ages 8 and 7. But in the spring of the previous year, in 1916, the "Angel of Peace" appeared to the children. He came to prepare them for the Blessed Mother's visits; she would appear to the children six times the following year. The Angel of Peace and the Blessed Mother shared these prayers with the children so that they, in turn, could share these prayers with us all.

PARDON PRAYER

My God, I believe, I adore, I hope, and I love You! I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope, and do not love You.

— Angel of Peace, Spring 1916

Scripture Reflection

Today's Gospel ties together the themes from the other readings. If there was a sense of division in the community in the First Reading, it is replaced by the unity that will mark the gathering of Jesus and his disciples in the Kingdom of Heaven. The spiritual building that disciples make of themselves on earth will become a heavenly dwelling place where there will be room for all. This, Jesus promises, will happen when he returns to the Father. The assurance that he gives the disciples at his impending departure also brings comfort and hope to us all. Jesus seeks to strengthen his followers who are troubled at the thought of his departure. He urges them to trust. He does not focus on the end of his life, only on the joyful events that will follow it. He leaves to prepare a place for the others with God. He is referring to his return at the end of time; he is alluding to the indwelling of his spirit enjoyed in this life by those united with him. Neither Thomas nor Philip fully understands what he means. Jesus ends his discourse with a promise that those who believe in him will be able to perform deeds that are even more wondrous than those he has performed. Our Gospel reading today reminds us that in Jesus, we encounter all we know of God. "The words I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works." This is a key teaching of John's entire Gospel. Jesus is God's only self-description, God's only commandment and God's only dream for humanity. In other words, if we model our life on Christ, not only will we be fulfilling God's will, we will become the kind of humans God has always dreamt of and we will reflect God's grace to all we meet. This is what Jesus means when he says, "No one can come to the Father except through me." Only by believing in Christ and fashioning our lives after his can we become like the Father, who is perfect divine love.

- How can you witness to unity and oneness this week?

Liturgical Reflection...

On the threshold of his public life Jesus performs his first sign at a wedding feast in Cana. This first sign was done at the request of his mother. The Church attaches great importance to Jesus' presence at the wedding in Cana. This is a confirmation of the goodness of marriage and the proclamation that marriage will now be a holy sign of Christ's presence. The mother of the Lord seeks her Son's assistance with the lack of wine. Today we remember mothers, living and dead, who have formed their sons and daughters in the image of a caring, loving Christ. Happy Mother's Day! (Catechism of the Catholic Church Number 1613)

Praying With Icons Class Offered...

Icons are not simply art; they are a way into contemplative prayer, and therefore one way to let God speak to us. The class, Praying With Icons, focuses on the Festal Icons (the major events in the life of Christ and the Theotokos) and the Sacred Scripture that speaks to us through the sacred images. Deacon Michael Russo will be presenting this eight week course Tuesday evenings from 6:30-8:30 PM at St. Rose of Lima Parish, Altoona beginning May 16th. The cost of the course is $35. For the complete schedule of class dates and registration, please contact Marybeth at the Office of Adult Enrichment and Lay Ecclesial Ministries at (814) 361-2000 or by email at mheinze@dioceseaj.org. All are welcome!
