THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

MISSION STATEMENT

Today we celebrate Christ's ascension into heaven and his commissioning of the disciples to carry on his mission in the world. First we hear Luke's description of those events in the opening verses of the Acts of the Apostles. Next we hear words of encouragement and guidance from the Letter to the Ephesians. Finally we hear Mark's account of the Ascension, foretelling the mighty words and acts the Christian community would do in Jesus' name.

Together these scriptures give us a vision of the mission of the church of Jesus Christ—a mission statement of sorts. Like mission statements in our parishes and corporations, this mission statement can help us set priorities and focus our activities. It can guide and support us as we strive to continue Christ's messianic mission on earth.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In Ireland and the United Kingdom, Mother's Day is over. "Mothering Sunday" was on the Fourth Sunday of Lent. Long ago, people were freed from work to travel on this day to the parish where they were baptized, their "Mother Church." Often, people were reunited with their mothers on this day. Employers would release their workers and servants for this visit. The American celebration, while based on this custom, really has to do with an anti-war movement of mothers in Civil War times. They crusaded for better sanitary conditions for their sons. When President Wilson instituted the first Mother's Day in 1912, it was a day to fly the flag in honor of mothers whose children had died in battle. Knowing the tradition is a good balance to our celebration today. We can enfold in prayer the mothers who have suffered the loss of their children in war.

DEEP DEBT

All that I am or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother.

MOTHER

Mother is the name for God on the lips and in the hearts of little children.

ARMED FORCES DAY

President Harry S. Truman led the effort to establish a single holiday for citizens to come together and thank our military members for their patriotic service in support of our country.

On August 31, 1949, Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson announced the creation of an Armed Forces Day to replace separate Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force Days. The single day celebration stemmed from the unification of the Armed Forces under the Department of Defense.

FUNERALS

Liturgical Reflection...

The Church continues the great Easter celebration. For fifty days we commemorate the glorious resurrection of Christ from the dead. It is the resurrection of the Lord that grounds our faith. At the Funeral Mass we commend our deceased brother or sister in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died with Christ, our dead will rise with Christ on the last day. Death and resurrection are at the heart of the believing Christian. Christ died for the forgiveness of our sins. His resurrection confirms the Father's love for his children. Life has been restored and there is victory over sin and death.

7th Sunday of Easter (May 13, 2018)

The stewardship of disciples is not reducible only to one task or another. It involves embracing, cultivating, enjoying, sharing – and sometimes also giving up – the goods of human life. [Stewardship: A Disciple's Response – 10th Anniv. Ed., USCCB 2002]

Beatitudes for Mothers

Blessed are Mothers

Who did without for us, they will be rewarded.

Blessed are Mothers

*Who lost sleep when we were sick,
they will find rest.*

Blessed are Mothers

*Who taught us how to pray,
they will share God's kingdom.*

Blessed are Mothers

Who comforted us, they shall be comforted.

Blessed are Mothers

*Who taught us right from wrong,
they will know justice.*

Blessed are Mothers

*Who shared with us the meaning of peace,
they shall know peace.*

Blessed are Mothers

Who taught us the importance of loving God and each other, they shall see God.

May 13 John 17:11-19

Jesus was worried about his disciples and he turned to prayer. No matter how much time we spend trying to "guard and protect" our children, each day they become less dependent on us and we must let go and let God. Prayer and parenting go together. No one understands that more than Mothers!

I love to think of nature as an unlimited broadcasting station, through which God speaks to us every hour, if we will only tune in."
