Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Every week, some treasures from our tradition are shared here. Where does all this history come from? The history of God's people of prayer is always coming to light, mostly because scholars have dedicated their lives to research. They translate and ponder prayers and songs; explore the places used for worship; look at the vessels, books, and vestments; and read works from legal documents to letters and diaries. In the 1930s, Hitler's rush to arm Germany closed seminaries as priests and seminarians alike were drafted into service.

*One professor, Father Josef Jungman, forced from his classroom, spent the war years in an Austrian library. His careful work disclosed much of what we know of the history of the Mass. His great work, The Mass of the Roman Rite, describes the evolution of Eucharistic celebration and inspired generations of scholars to explore a tradition surprisingly rich and varied. It was said of him that he had a command of the past that cast new light on the present, and opened up a clear direction to the future. His contributions to the Second Vatican Council helped shape the way that we worship today. At the end of his life, in 1975, his studies completed, he told a friend that he was waiting patiently for the Lord's knock at the door to take him to the heavenly banquet.*

BEGIN WITH ARDOR

If we wish to make any progress in the service of God we must begin every day of our life with new ardor.

—St. Charles Borromeo

GOVERNMENT

Government is a trust, and the officers of the government are trustees; and both the trust and the trustees are created for the benefit of the people.

—Henry Clay

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, Father of all Mercies, Provider of a bountiful Harvest, send Your Graces upon those You have called to gather the fruits of Your labor; preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you. Open the hearts of Your children that they may discern Your Holy Will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ.

Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by Your Divine Word and Truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant Your Church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

NOVEMBER 3, 2019 THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 10:30 AM	November 3, 2019 Scripture Reflections
OUR LADY OF FATIMA MASS INTENTIONS NOVEMBER 3, THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN O.T. Readings: Wis 11:22-12:2; 2 Thes 1:11-2:2; Lk 19:1-10 Today's Intention - Grace Ruscito November 10, 2019, Thirty-Second Sunday in O.T. Readings: 2 Mc 7:1-2,9-14; 2 Thes 2:11-16-3:5; Lk 20:27-38 Charles Hennigan, M/M Paul Kowalski	In an amusing account, Luke tells the story of Zacchaeus, a well-known tax collector, short in stature, who climbs a tree in his excitement to catch a glimpse of Jesus passing through Jericho on his way to Jerusalem. His loss of dignity must have been amusing to the crowds. As Jesus passes by, he looks up and says to Zacchaeus, "Come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." Zacchaeus welcomes Jesus with joy. This encounter transforms Zacchaeus and he promises to give away half of his possessions to the poor and to pay restitution to anyone he harmed. Jesus' accepts Zacchaeus' faith, saying, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham."
Cathedral Mass Intention November 4, Monday: St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop Readings: Rom 11:29-36; Lk 14:12-14 6:45 AM + Geraldine Petrunak Health (Family) 12:00 PM + Bernadine Garcia (Marge Dennis)	Every encounter with Jesus brings with the challenge to make a free decision. Zacchaeus seizes the moment and his encounter with Jesus changes his life. His experience also demonstrates the true attitude towards wealth: to give away one's surplus to those in need and not to defraud another of what is rightfully theirs.
November 5, Tuesday: Weekday Readings: Rom 12:5-16; Lk 14:15-24 6:45 AM + Catherine Hardin (Joe & Kim Fornwalt) 12:00 PM + David Axinn (Family)	This story is another example in which Luke's Gospel account presents Jesus turning social expectations upside down. The people are shocked to see that Jesus is inviting himself to the home of a tax collector, a sinner. Jesus goes further and acknowledges that Zacchaeus has been granted salvation and that he "too is a descendant of Abraham." Zacchaeus' ability to change his way of life is an example of how Abraham's descendants should act. Abraham is among those in the Old Testament who are heirs to God's promises.
November 6, Wednesday: Weekday Readings: Rom 13:8-10; Lk 14:25-33 6:45 AM + Nancy Kennedy (Joan Kilbourne) 12:00 PM + Carrie Detwiler (Jane Davidson)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What aspects of this story strike you as significant for your relationship with Jesus?
November 7, Thursday: Weekday Readings: Rom 14:7-12; Lk 15:1-10 6:45 AM + Grace Ruscito (Bear & Patty McCloskey) 12:00 PM + Pat Vierkorn (Marge Moschella)
November 8, Friday: Weekday Readings: Rom 15:14-21; Lk 16:1-8 6:45 AM + Benita Jorkasky (Patricia Rhoa) 12:00 PM + Christina Giblock (RCIA TEAM)
November 9, Saturday: Dedication of the Lateran Basilica Readings: Ez 47:1-2,8-9,12; 1 Cor 3:9-11,16-17; Jn 2:13-22 8:00 AM + Phillip Petrunak Birthday (Family) 12:00 PM + Jake Jarkiewicz (Vogel Family)	AT HOME with the WORD 2019 , Archdiocese of Chicago: Liturgy Training Publications, pg. 141.
Jesus, Son of the Living Father, Have Mercy on Me a Sinner.	Please pray for all of our parishioners, especially for those who have illnesses great and small and our seniors who are lonely and need comfort and care.

November 3 Luke 19:1-10

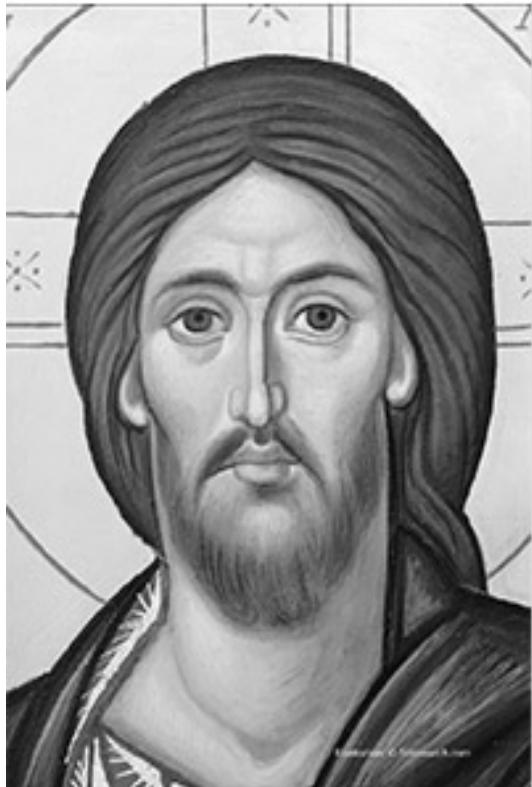

Jesus is saying to you what he said to Zacchaeus, "I must stay at your house today." It doesn't matter if in today's gospel Jesus "intended to pass through Jericho to another town." In families we sometimes stop at the wrong places. It is wisdom to "pass through" annoying family situations so we can enjoy the goodness of each other.

2019 National Vocation Awareness Week, Nov. 3-9

National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

Observance of Vocation Awareness Week began in 1976 when the U.S. bishops designated the 28th Sunday of the year for the celebration. It was later moved to Feast of the Baptism of the Lord in January. In 2014, after extensive consultation, the Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations moved the observance of National Vocation Awareness Week to November to engage Catholic schools and colleges more effectively in this effort.

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.
