October 30 Luke 19:1-10

Jesus is saying to you what he said to Zacchaeus, "I must stay at your house today." It doesn't matter if Jesus "intended to pass through Jericho to another town." In families we sometimes stop at the wrong places. It is wisdom to "pass through" annoying family situations so we can enjoy the goodness of each other.

OCTOBER 30, 2016

Scripture Reflection

In Luke's story of Zacchaeus, Jesus fulfills the very role that he "has come to seek and to save what was lost." There is something amusing and even ridiculous about the plight of Zacchaeus. He is no ordinary tax collector (a group despised by the citizens), he is the chief tax collector. He must have been slightly embarrassed - a person of his position having to climb a tree to see Jesus. But he sets aside any personal inhibitions and holds his ground, saying that if--- notice the "if"---he has defrauded anyone, he will make amends four-fold, keeping to the strictest restitution demanded by the law. Jesus, not to be overdone in generosity, proclaims: "Today salvation has come to this house."

Zacchaeus is transformed by his encounter with Jesus, when he climbs up. Then an amazing thing happens, Jesus announces that he is coming to stay at his house. Jesus becomes both guest and host at the table of a sinner.

What makes this story so appealing is the joy that both Jesus and Zacchaeus show in meeting each other. "Come down quickly," Jesus says, "for today I must stay at your house". Zacchaeus drops quickly and receives Jesus with joy. The crowd, however, does not share in their joy. They grumble about a prophet eating with a sinner! Zacchaeus turns concretely from his sin and meets salvation incarnate in the person and promise of Jesus. It is precisely in the midst of human sin and misery that Jesus the Good Shepherd comes seeking us out to redeem us and our suffering. Sometimes we can find ourselves "up a tree," even in our relationship with God. Remember Zacchaeus. Jesus brought him down safely, and restored him to the community. This is why the Lord still comes into our lives: to bring salvation to our own house.

- When have you experienced the mercy that Jesus shows Zacchaeus?
- What keeps you from seeing as God sees and what helps you see people's sins as doors to repentance?

Out and About...

Liturgical Reflection...

JUBILEE

MERCY

Zacchaeus is a chief tax collector and a wealthy man. He needs to see this Jesus so he boosts his short body up into the sycamore tree. Zacchaeus is seeking divine mercy. Mercy incarnate invites himself into the tax collector's house. This man will never be the same after this meeting. He shares half his possessions with the poor. If there has been extortion, there is a four times repayment. The tax collector is on fire with mercy. God's mercy has forgiven his sins; so he now reaches out in mercy to others. Like this tax collector, may we seek out the Lord and receive his mercy. And like the tax collector, may we share that mercy with others.

2016, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

HOLY DAY...

Liturgical Reflection...

This Tuesday, November 1, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Catholics are expected to participate at Mass on this Solemnity of All Saints. The Church keeps festival with all the men, women and children who have entered the kingdom of God who are seated as the saints in glory around the crucified and risen Christ. It is our humble prayer that some day this will also be our feast day. As for the present, the mercy of God calls us forth to be compassionate, understanding, and forgiving to others. Through the intercession of the saints, may our hearts be filled with mercy.

2016, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648.

Conference on the Family

On Monday, November 7th at 7:00PM at St. John the Evangelist Church in Lakemont, the Ecumenical Conference of Greater Altoona is sponsoring an evening program focusing on the recent Apostolic Exhortation of Pope Francis on the family. Bishop Mark Bartchak will give an overview of the papal document, Amoris Laetitia, with leaders of faith communities and social service agencies giving their responses in light of their own experience and faith traditions. There will be a question and answer session following, as well as time for fellowship and refreshments. All are cordially invited.

Family Ritual...

Display photos of deceased loved ones on a wall, buffet or table during the month of November. Make sure you include a military person on November 11th. Light a candle each evening and talk about how God's love shined in their lives and how they influenced your life.

Word of Life

"Thanks be to God, we agree on the fact that terrorism of any kind is a perverse and cruel choice which shows contempt for the sacred right to life and undermines the very foundations of all civil coexistence. If together we can succeed in eliminating from our hearts any trace of rancor, in resisting every form of intolerance and in opposing every manifestation of violence, we will turn back the wave of cruel fanaticism that endangers the lives of so many people and hinders progress towards world peace."

Calendars of Prizes 2017 Are Here!

Calendars of Prizes 2017 are being sold at the Cathedral Square door after all Masses. Like last year, each calendar costs $20.00. There is a $10.00 daily prize; an additional $1,000.00 in special monthly prizes awarded throughout the year; and a grand prize of $5,000.00 Family Trip or Cash Option. Due to the state regulations for small games of chance, it is necessary that all one thousand tickets be sold. Otherwise, the parish will lose money on unsold tickets. If you have a favorite three digit number, call the Parish Office (944-4603) weekdays between 9:30 AM and 5:30 PM to check on availability or stop at the Cathedral Square door after Mass. These make great gifts that last all year!

Spiritual Pilgrimage on Saturday, November 12, 2016.

In celebration of the Year of Mercy, the faithful of Altoona-Johnstown are invited to join us for this spiritual pilgrimage on Saturday, November 12, 2016.

As always, each parish faith community will be responsible for chartering its own bus for the trip and registering parishioners. Parishes that already collaborate with other parishes may wish to partner for this endeavor. Other parishes invited to join The Cathedral are: Our Lady of Fatima, Holy Rosary, Saint Mark, and Saint Catherine of Sienna. Cost is $40.00

The TENTATIVE schedule for the day is as follows. Plans will be finalized in the near future, but this at least gives you some direction to begin your planning.

11:00 a.m. – Arrival

Noon – Midday Prayer

12:45 p.m. – Lunch

1:30 p.m. – Reconciliation Opportunity

3:00 p.m. – Mass with Bishop Mark as celebrant and homilist

4:30 p.m. – Departure

This pilgrimage also offers the opportunity for a Plenary Indulgence during this Year of Mercy. The program for the day will contain the appropriate prayers for this Indulgence.

Pilgrimages to the National Shrine are a rich tradition here in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown. It would be nice to have every parish faith community in the Diocese represented on November 12. If parish groups want to visit other Washington, D.C., landmarks outside of the 11:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. time period, they are free to do so.
