HANDS TOGETHER

Next weekend our parish participates in the diocesan Mission Cooperative Plan and we welcome Fr. Steve Toth who helps the missions in Haiti. The Missionary Cooperative plan assigns a mission group to every parish to speak about the work of our church in other parts of the world and to remind us that our church is fundamentally a Mission Church. Our diocesan mission office assigned Hands Together — a Catholic mission outreach working in Haiti - to share with us news of how our church continues to help the poorest of the poor.

The Church in Haiti is struggling to bring God's love to the many hurting people and we are the comfort.

In Haiti there are 9.5 million people in an area smaller than Maryland. 70% of these cannot read, and 85% live below poverty level. In slum areas 4 out of 5 children do not reach the age of five, and nationally 1 in 3 children suffer from chronic malnutrition. The Hurricanes in 2004 and 2008, along with the devastating January 12, 2010 earthquake and hurricane later that same year, have left Haiti severely damaged and in desperate need of our prayers and support.

Hands Together runs free schools, medical clinics and nutrition programs in Cite Soleil, providing 15,000 daily school meals and helping thousands of people who struggle to survive. Their work among the violence and savage poverty here is founded upon the Catholic social teachings of the dignity of human life and a preferential option for the poor. Hands Together embraces a clear ethic of life based on Catholic teaching that proclaims God's infinite and absolute love for us. About one-third of Hands Together's mission work supports educational, health, charity, and developmental projects in the Diocese's of Fort Liberte and Gonaives where more than 1 million live in abject poverty.

Fr. Toth is a faithful volunteer for Hands Together who makes service trips to Haiti and gives mission talks at parishes in the United States.
