O.L.F. Year For The Eucharist June 20, 2010 - June 19, 2011

Mark Leonard Bartchak was born January 1, 1955 in Cleveland, Ohio. He is the son of Rosemary (nee: Beck) Bartchak-Shay of Garfield Heights, OH, and the late Leonard Bartchak. His mother's ethnic background is German and Irish and his father's background is Polish. (In the Polish language, the family name is Bartczak.) Bartchak is the 5th of eight children. He attended Catholic elementary and secondary schools, graduating in 1973 from Bradford Central Christian High School, Bradford, PA in the Diocese of Erie. His college studies were at St. Mark Seminary and Gannon University, Erie, PA, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy in 1977. Bartchak was ordained a deacon at Christ the King Seminary on September 22, 1980 and served as deacon at St. Joseph Parish, Warren, PA. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Erie on May 15, 1981, by the late Bishop Michael J. Murphy at St. Peter Cathedral, Erie. He studied canon law at The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC where he received a Doctorate degree in 1992.

Joseph Victor Adamec was born on August 13, 1935, in Bannister, Michigan, and baptized in the village church of St. Cyril on September 1, 1935. His parents immigrated from Slovakia; - father Michal in 1913 and mother Alzbeta in 1921. During his two years at Michigan State University, studying journalism and foreign languages, he served as co-editor of the dormitory newspaper. The decision to study for the priesthood was facilitated by his contact while at Michigan State University with the now Jozef Cardinal Tomko, Prefect of the Sacred Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples, who at the time was Vice Rector of the Pontifical Ne-pomucene College in Rome. There he studied for six years, earning a Licentiate in Sacred Theology at the Pontifical Lateran University. He was ordained by Aloysius Cardinal Traglia in the Church of Saint Anselm in Rome on July 3, 1960, for the former diocese of his parents, the Diocese of Nitra in Slovakia.

Monsignor Joseph V. Adamec was named Bishop of Altoona-Johnstown on March 12, 1987. His Appointment was made public on March 17, 1987. He was consecrated on May 20, 1987, in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament at Altoona, PA by Jozef Cardinal Tomko.

As part of the Charter for Protecting God's Children, parishes are to occasionally or at least annually inform the faithful of the process for reporting sexual abuse by a person representing the Church. "Did you know that outreach to victims of sexual abuse is one of the ministries in the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown? The Children & Youth Protection & Advocacy Office provides assistance towards healing by means of therapy, spiritual direction, and mutual support groups. Sister Marilyn Welch is the Victim Advocate for the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown. If now, or at any time in the past, a priest, deacon, or other person representing the Church has sexually abused you, you are urged to contact Betsy Chilcote at the Children & Youth Protection & Advocacy Office, 814-693-9333"

We welcome on Palm Sunday (4:30 PM Saturday Mass) Baritone Robert Hench. As part of our expanding music program we will on occasion have both instrumental and vocal guest soloists. There is an esthetic as well as a practical reason for this departure from the norm. While enhancing our worship experience as we praise God musically, we want also to demonstrate to the gathered faithful that full participation in the Liturgy involves listening as well as singing, and that neither is a substitute for the other. A beautiful piece performed by a trained soloist should inspire and encourage the congregation to sing out full-throatedly.

Concerning our Cantors, it must be remembered that they are not soloists. Their role is to lead the congregation and not to replace, overwhelm, or entertain the congregation.
