Scripture Reflection

Humility has always been an essential attitude in the spiritual life. Taming our human tendencies toward self-importance can be a challenge. The author of Sirach teaches that humility brings more honor than gift giving. And, the important person who is humble will find favor with God. Being humble is accepting the truth that one's state and status in life come from God, not from a person's own initiative.

In the Gospel parable, Jesus continues to affirm the place of humility in the life of those who would enter the kingdom of God. He tells a parable that could sound like advice on etiquette (how to avoid embarrassment at a dinner party), but it is rooted in a teaching about humility. To those who have been trying to find places of honor at the table, he advises taking the lowest place, for "every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." The implied teaching is that the banquet of the kingdom is open to all; God's grace is inclusive, not exclusive. The one who is humble enough to recognize that always receives the best place, no matter where it is.

The parable sets human honor in its proper place; it is arbitrary and based on shifting cultural considerations. God seeks out humility because humility is not intended to dishonor any particular person but to give glory and honor to God and to respect each person as a creation of God. True honor is recognizing in humility our glory before God, not before human beings.

Contemplate the honor God has given each of us as beloved creations.

- Is it difficult for you not to receive honor from others?
- Do you recognize the honor with which God has endowed you?
- How do you recognize and honor each person as God's creation?

Have Mercy on me, a sinner*

OUR LADY OF FATIMA NOTES.....

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Liturgical Reflection...

When you hold a lunch or dinner, do not invite your friends, family or wealthy neighbors. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. Blessed will you be because of their inability to repay you. This Jubilee Year we are invited to say to others, "I am sorry"; "I forgive you"; "Is there anything I can do for you?" We do so expecting no repayment, nothing in return. God's heart is full of love and kindness. We are challenged to share that same mercy and understanding whenever we see a sister or brother in need of God's comfort. Mercy is the face of God. Are we able to share that gift with a generous heart?

YEAR OF MERCY SUMMER ROAD TRIPS!

What better way to spend a summer afternoon as a "pilgrim" visiting three churches celebrating their 200th Anniversary founded by our own saint-in-progress, Servant of God, Reverend Demetrius Gallitzin. Plan to take a Sunday drive to Holy Name, Ebensburg, St. Patrick, Newry, and St. Thomas the Apostle, Bedford, the designated sites for the Holy Doors of the Jubilee of Mercy.

Prayer times have been scheduled at all three churches on August 28. Prayers will be led in half hour intervals from 1:00 PM- 4:00 PM, beginning at 1:30PM. You may even want to include a visit to St. Michael of the Archangel Basilica, Loretto the site of the tomb of Father Gallitzin to top off your day! An added bonus is an opportunity to grow spiritually and gain a Plenary
