Security Notes:

A nice story first: Way back when we were running the first series of tests on our new computerized T.V. monitoring system for the church, we accidentally “caught” on digital disk an answer to a question which had been plaguing us since we put up the Christmas tree. There appeared under the tree a quart size red tin container wrapped with a golden Christmas bow. When we opened the can we found inside several rolls of coins totaling under thirty dollars. We had no idea of who it was that brought this self-sacrificing Christmas present to the Baby Jesus.

Father Z said at the very beginning of this “security adventure” that we didn’t want to convey to parishioners in particular and other visitors in general that they were constantly being watched by big brother’s eye in the sky. He determined that only he or his designate would review the tapes only in the event that something was amiss, and never without just cause to simply check-up on people using our facilities to privately have conversation with God.

Running that first check to see if the system was working, we caught sight of a young boy of about ten years of age carrying that same can into the vestibule and up to the Christmas Tree. No one conducting the review recognized the boy. He didn’t appear to be a member of any of the registered member families, and he was not one of the regular skate boarders who hang around the church facilities. Father said we needed to respect his privacy and not try to find out who he was.

A not so nice story second: Just recently the second or third-hand monitor Father kept in the Confessional (to increase the size of the day’s Scripture readings taken from his hand-held device) went missing. Father asked Chris to check the video disk. Sure enough we got pictures of the young man (20ish) exiting the front door carrying the monitor outside the church. Father has decided not to press charges at this time. We’ve got a pretty long statute of limitations. Father would rather give the culprit time to fess up and make good on his own. Since he has been seen around, we know he is from the Fifth Ward Neighborhood or has close connections to someone here. So before dragging him before to the court of last resort, maybe messing with his mind a little bit will urge him down the right path on his own.

Special note to parents: If you read the above you are aware that we are becoming more aware of what is going on around us via technology ... perhaps, even more aware than we want to be. There is no subtle way to call parents’ attention to the fact that our cameras (which cover our property only) are recording 14-15-year-old’s engaging in R-rated activity. Back in our day we wouldn’t think of making-out on any church’s property ... even if it didn’t have the Real Presence within.
(The most recent teeny-bopper R-rated event occurred on the Church Steps on the Feast of St. Marie Goretti 7/6)

Parishioners and Friends, Members and Visitors
PLEASE NOTICE

While you are on O.L.F. property your comfort, safety, and security are greatly enhanced by our use of live and high quality T.V. Cameras.

Pray in Peace

To those who wish us ill, remember, if you kept close to her while you were alive, Our Lady of Fatima might be able to work a sweet deal with her Son in your favor after you are dead.

But, while you are still undead the best we can offer is an inexperienced, low paid Public Defender.

Smile, we're taking Mug Shots!

* If nothing illicit occurs within a month or so the CD disks are quickly erased, scrubbed and recorded over and over.

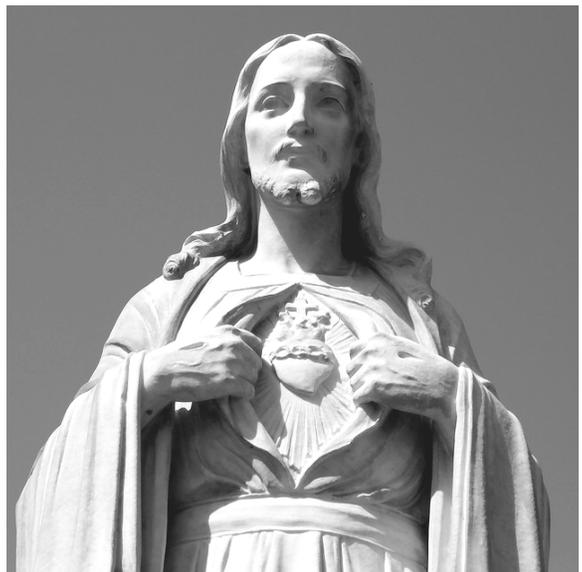

During each of the Months remaining in 2011 as well as all of the months 'til June in 2012 we will be having special devotions, usually but not always or exclusively, after each weekday and each weekend Mass, according to the schedule shown to the right of this announcement.

Often there are varying versions of these devotions or even different devotions. The pastor is open to reviewing any favorites any parishioner may have.
