

Just a reminder of what's coming!

Our Lady of Fatima Parish has teamed up with the bakers at Cesare Battisti / Jack's Grub Shack, 3909 Beale Ave., to provide Altoona's ethnic gourmets with fresh baked Pagash, anytime everyday. The partnership consists of OLF selling them and the Grub Shack making them.

Pagash makes a great Lunch, Supper, or evening Snack. Use it as you would an ordinary pizza. Like a regular pizza Pagash is best right out of the oven, but it's almost equally good coming out of the microwave later on.

Here's the deal! In a few weeks you will be able to buy a special "Pagash Pie" ticket in the vestibule of OLF church or on the street from one of our designated sellers.

- The cost of each ticket is $11.00
- You can redeem the ticket at the Grub Shack for one basic pie during their operating hours*
- The tickets are marked with a "valid from  to" note. There is a sixty day period during which the tickets can be used (if purchased on day one) and a fifty day period if purchased on day 10. With all our other food fundraisers you are confined to the one day we are having the sale. With the Pagash Sale you are in control of the day and time you want to enjoy the great taste.
- We are arranging for a free taste testing after Masses next week end.

* The Shack is operational seven days a week. The morning, afternoon, and evening hours are printed on the ticket.
