With the Sacred Heart behind her, O.L.F. is still going strong!

While sitting in St. Francis University's Library, I was thumbing through a catalogue filled with pictures of used church artifacts. When I saw this statue of Our Lady of Fatima I couldn't miss the fact that standing behind her, almost holding her up, was a statue of the Sacred Heart which looks identical to the one to which we are currently (throughout June) making a novena. Some will argue that this is mere coincidence. I submit to you it was a sign (at least to me) that the Sacred Heart, as long as we honor him, will never let O.L.F. fall.

This mini-religious experience or Grace filled moment, empowered me to walk right up to a very high ranking Monsignor, who was on the same retreat as I, and ask him point blank: "What's with all the closing Fatima stuff on the internet?" He said - I'm paraphrasing now - "Opinions and plans are like belly buttons: everybody has one." Further he said, "There is no single, definite, detailed, comprehensive plan on the table for this new bishop to give his fiat." This high ranking diocesan official (to whom I guaranteed anonymity) said he didn't think the bishop was ready to move in this direction so early in his tenure. I said: "What? A year?" He said: "probably at least two, even before he starts seriously and strategically thinking about it." Naturally, he added the c.y.a. codicil "... of course you never know. If two priests die between now and then, it could force the issue further up the agenda." His consoling words were that none of the stuff you've read or heard about is going to happen, right now, and if and when something happens it may bear little resemblance to the plan put forth on the internet.

This conversation convinced me of at least one thing. We have sufficient time to mount a campaign promulgating the theme: "The Fifth Ward needs the Real Presence to be really present."

On the other side of this page are a few "talking points" we, each and every one of us, need to keep repeating to neighbors, church officials, each other, the media, and ourselves.

Come on - the Sacred Heart is doing his part. Let's you and I do our parts. It's mostly a mind game. If you think it doesn't matter, it won't. If you don't do it, it won't get done.

Some Talking Points

- O.L.F. is the only anchor property left in the Fifth Ward. This term is used by both sociologists and realtors to refer to public places such as museums, theaters, post offices, large stores, bigger churches, and schools - that is, those places, distinct from private dwellings, where individuals and individual families come together with common purpose as a community of persons.
- When anchor properties go, remaining property values plummet precipitously.
- When anchor properties disappear, crime rates soar.
- When anchor properties fold up, Police presence declines.
- When the Catholic Church leaves a neighborhood, all people of (any) Faith experience the empty, often indescribable, feeling of being left in the presence of the Real Absence.

... and we haven't even gotten to the heavy theological stuff yet!

God exists as three persons but is one God, meaning that God the Son and God the Holy Spirit have exactly the same nature or being as God the Father in every way. Whatever attributes and power God the Father has, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit have as well. "Thus, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are also eternal, omnipresent, omnipotent, infinitely wise, infinitely holy, infinitely loving, omniscient."

Dear Monsignor/Father/Deacon,

We have received a letter from Archbishop Timothy Dolan, President of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Archbishop Dolan is requesting that we take up a collection to assist those Diocese's who have been devastated by the tornadoes that have struck the South and the Midwest.

Bishop Kevin Farrell, Chairman of the Committee of National Collections in conjunction with Catholic Charities U.S.A. will collaborate in distributing these funds to those who have been most adversely affected.

If you are able, please take up a collection at your earliest opportunity for this purpose and forward these monies to:

Tornado Victims Fund
Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown
927 S. Logan Boulevard
Hollidaysburg, PA 16648

We will send them, as a Diocese, to Catholic Charities U.S.A.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter and please keep these victims in your prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

(Rev. Msgr.) Robert J. Saly
Diocesan Coordinator of Disaster Relief

LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY
Proposed "situation" is sometimes called a "vocation". Hard work, low pay. Career as guide and servant-friend to people who are lost, poor, hungry or burdened because they cannot find God, themselves, understanding or their fellow-man. Employer (God) will furnish most essential tools of this art or craft, since they are beyond the power or possession of applicants. However, applicants must bring undivided hearts, generous supply of total dedication, sense of humor and perspective, joy in the Lord, adequate intellect and a heart full of hope they will be willing to share with a world which has little of hope or faith. Salary and all other rewards, here or hereafter, are in the hands of their Employer, who can be reached only by prayer. Apply to Local Accredited Representative of Jesus Christ for placement and training in most appropriate seminary or convent.

Ephesians Chapter 6

- 1 Children, obey your parents (in the Lord), for this is right.
- 2 "Honor your father and mother." This is the first commandment with a promise,
- 3 "that it may go well with you and that you may have a long life on earth."
- 4 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up with the training and instruction of the Lord.

In 1957, Maine Senator Margaret Chase Smith wrote a proposal accusing Congress of ignoring fathers for 40 years while honoring mothers, thus "[singling] out just one of our two parents" In 1966, President Lyndon B. Johnson issued the first presidential proclamation honoring fathers, designating the third Sunday in June as Father's Day.<sup>1</sup> Six years later, the day was made a permanent national holiday when President Richard Nixon signed it into law in 1972.
