A TRIBUTE TO MOST REV. FR. J. D. ZATALAVA, MASTER OF DIVINITY

Father James Damian Zatalava, Catholic priest of the Altoona Johnstown Diocese for 48 years, and former pastor of many parishes, most recently at Our Lady of Fatima, died May 30, 2018. He was 74.

He was born in Johnstown on May 1, 1944 to Francis and Mae Zatalava. He graduated from Bishop McCort High School in 1962 and entered Our Lady of Loreto Seminary and received his Masters of Divinity in 1970 and was ordained a Catholic priest by Bishop James J. Hogan on May 16, 1970.

Nicknamed "Father Catechism" by his close friend Cardinal Raymond Burke and others in the Roman Curia, Father Zatalava proudly and staunchly embraced the Truths of the Faith. Featured on EWTN in 2006 for pioneering the idea of providing solid Catholic education online, and for his prolific writings on matters of Faith and Morals, he had an unwavering commitment to authentic Catholic education.

He was the founder and creator of the online sensation and popular phenomenon: CatechismClass.com. This online, orthodox Catholic education program continues to provide solid catechesis to Catholics worldwide. His proud creation and brainchild is used in dioceses, parishes, schools, military bases, embassies and by families around the globe to this day. His ability to reach people anywhere in the world with his educational platform and sound pedagogical content was something he found particularly satisfying and edifying.

As a constant and fierce champion of Catholic and pro-life causes, Father Zatalava had a deep and profound respect for human life, from conception until natural death. He preached unceasingly about the evils of abortion, the sinfulness of contraception, and the horrors of euthanasia. His courageous and articulate homilies inspired many people to convert to Catholicism. His academic and intellectually designed presentations of the Faith served to properly form the hearts and minds of his parishioners. His most popular quote was "Everyone has something to give, even if it's an example of what NOT to be."

He was well respected in the Catholic media world. Michael Voris, of Church Militant TV, mourned the passing of Father Zatalava, "While Church Militant mourns the loss of a very dedicated priest of Jesus Christ and whose first love was souls, we also feel honored to be able to offer him our humble praise for his life of holiness and fidelity to the One True Faith. Priests like Fr. Zatalava are model priests who desire for the salvation of souls, are the very essence of the priesthood and now Fr., who suffered much at the hands of many of his fellow clergy, will see the completion of his priesthood in the Beatific Vision, which will be richly rewarded. Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into your Master's joy - and continue your prayers for our work here at Church Militant, directly before the throne and God. Much brotherly love in Our Blessed Lord. Help us to heaven as well.

Matthew Plese, President of CatechismClass.com posted, "It is with the deepest sadness we announce the passing of our founder, Fr. James D. Zatalava, into eternal rest. The long-time pastor of Our Lady of Fatima in Altoona, PA, Fr. Zatalava was a true visionary who founded our organization back in 2004. At the time, online religious education was incredibly new to the Church. It was the vision, tenacity, and love of Fr. Zatalava that helped us reach our level today. Please join me in praying for the repose of the soul of our dear founder. May the Lord grant him eternal rest and free him from the pains of purgatory.

Father Zatalava was a connoisseur of, and had an enormous appreciation for, the finer things in life. He enjoyed gourmet food, especially sushi, attending the theatre and the ballet, viewing fascinating displays of modern art, and seeking out a wide variety of musical performances. As the former Director of the Arts of Huntingdon, the fine arts held a special place in his heart.

Father Zatalava had struggled with his health on and off for several years, but that never prevented him from helping others. Despite prolonged hospital stays followed by grueling rehabilitation programs, he rebounded and was a source of support for others who were suffering with ailments. He retired in 2015 and was living at Dmitri Manor in Hollidaysburg, PA.

Father J.D. is survived by his brother, Francis Zatalava (Marilyn) of Somerset, along with many nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by brother John.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated for Father Zatalava on Saturday, June 2, 2018 at 10 am at Our Lady of Fatima Church by Most Rev Bishop Mark Bartchak. Committal at Sts. Peter and Paul Roman Cemetery. In Lieu of Flowers kindly made donations to Our Lady of Fatima Church or Ss. Peter & Paul Roman Catholic Church Cemetery Endowment Fund.

*Jesus, Son of the Living Father,
Have Mercy on Me a Sinner*

June 10, 2018 Scripture Reflection

Today's readings remind us of two foundational aspects of our Christian faith: (1) the sinfulness in our world comes ultimately from pursuing our own will and not God's will, and (2) God liberates us from our sinful condition through the Redeemer.

In the Gospel, we see that Jesus is this redeemer, but his own people refuse to accept his message. Instead, they say he is "out of his mind" and attribute everything to the powers of evil. They reject the workings of the Holy Spirit in their lives. Mark's Gospel makes the significant point that Jesus brought about a new kinship, founded not on flesh and blood, but on rebirth by the Spirit. The Spirit enables Jesus' followers to carry out God's will. Only those who do the will of God are "Jesus' brother and sister and mother." The Spirit gives us rebirth into this new family of God and enables us to carry out God's will.

Mark understood Jesus to be the all-powerful savior whose power exceeded that of even his strongest opponents, and who therefore could rescue any human, no matter how horrifying the situation that held them bound. Mark uses this Christological insight to highlight a wider discussion of discipleship. Jesus' disciples are those who believe in his power and follow his teachings. This did not include his relatives, at least at first. The passages immediately before and after this rebuke of the scribes speak of his relatives coming to fetch him because they thought he had lost his mind. Jesus uses their appearance to highlight an aspect of discipleship. His true family are the people who join him in fulfilling the divine will and liberating humanity from the grip of death.

Christ is stronger than our greatest fears and stronger than anything that holds us bound. The Son of God shares this divine strength with anyone who believes in him and takes on his mission, no matter what their initial condition might be. This is the strength that allowed Jesus to overcome his own will in Gethsemane and thereby free those bound by Eden's sin.

- Do you believe Jesus is stronger than any evil?
- Are there examples from your life?

Annual Cereal Collection

For many years, Mrs. Judy Savine, a member of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Altoona, has collected cereal to benefit children through the Saint Vincent dePaul Food Pantry in Altoona. Bishop Mark has once again requested that each parish in Blair County sponsor a cereal collection at all Masses on Father's Day weekend - June 16-17, 2018.

FATIMA DEVOTIONS

The Franciscan Friars, T.O.R., from Loretto, invite you to participate with them in celebrating the Fatima Devotions on Wednesday June 13th, at 6:30 P.M. in the Sunken Gardens. (In case of inclement weather, the devotions will be at the Immaculate Conception Chapel on the Saint Francis University Campus). The singing will be led by choir from St. Benedict's Church in Carrolltown and the sermon will be delivered by Fr. Richard Davis, T.O.R. We would like to extend a cordial welcome to all.

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time (June 10)

The message of the parable in today's Gospel is that division has no place in relation to God's will. The family of God is anyone who believes in Jesus and does what God asks. A relative of Jesus does God's will and as stewards of God's creation it is our job to safeguard the unity of the Kingdom.

June 10 Mark 3:20-35

Jesus reminds us in today's gospel "a house divided against itself will not stand." Are the tensions and issues which divide your home worth the struggle? Even if you win an argument you lose a relationship. Don't let pride and pettiness divide your home.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN FUNERALS	Liturgical Reflection... Saint Paul tells the Corinthian Christians today that our earthly body shall be destroyed, but our true hope is that we will live eternally in heaven. In death God will call us back to the kingdom. During the Committal of a loved one, the Church prays: So let us commend our brother/sister to the Lord, that the Lord may embrace them in peace, and raise up their body on the last day. In the mercy and love of God, we pray that our deceased be welcomed into the kingdom of God's love. Father Dennis Kurdziel Update

Your prayers are working! Father Dennis continues to regain his strength. He is to be back at the rectory in the near future. Nonetheless, it will be some time before he resumes his responsibilities at Mass. Keep those prayers coming!

Prayer To St. Jude

Most holy apostle, St. Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honors and invokes you universally, as the patron of hopeless cases, of things almost despaired of. Come to our assistance in this great need that We may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all our necessities, tribulations, and sufferings, particularly - the return to health for Fr. Dennis Kurdziel that we may praise God with you and all the elect forever. (If it be God's will.) We promise, O blessed St. Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favor, to always honor you as our special and powerful patron, and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.

THE CATHOLIC PRIEST

*He has no wife nor children
For Christ he has given up all.
The Lord will repay him a hundredfold
For answering His call.*

*He doesn't own any property.
His bank account is small.
His wealth is in the souls he's led
To the Savior of us all.*

*He toils in quiet obscurity
Seeking no honor or fame
Working only to save men's souls
For the glory of God's holy name.*

*The confessional is his hospital.
Sickness of spirit does he solve.
No medicine can cure like the words
"Of all your sins, I do absolve."*

*At every baptism, funeral and wedding,
He is surely to be found.
How empty would be this world
If there were no "Fathers" around.*

*How sublime to celebrate the Mass
Only an angel understands
How the Creator of the universe
Is brought into his holy hands.*

*When he makes the "Sign of the Cross"
Oh, what graces are released.
The pillars of hell do tremble
At the blessing of a priest.*

*Pray, pray for the man in the collar.
May his numbers be increased.
The Lord has willed that Paradise be found
Through the guidance of the Catholic priest.*
