Holy Day of Obligation Masses = Wed. 6:00pm; Thu. 8:00am and 6:00pm

Oh Hell!

Last week you heard a lot of what the pastor had to say about Hell and how many people go there. Let's listen to what some of the Fathers of the Church had to say on this subject;

"The greater part of men choose to be damned rather than to love Almighty God."

-Saint Alphonsus Maria Liguori, Doctor of the Church

".. on the threshing floor few are the grains carried into the barns, but high are the piles of chaff burned with fire."

-Pope Saint Gregory the Great, Father and Doctor of the Church

"It is certain that few are saved."

-Saint Augustine, Father and Doctor of the Church

"Out of one hundred thousand sinners who continue in sin until death, scarcely one will be saved."

-Saint Jerome, Father and Doctor of the Church

What I am about to tell you is very terrible, yet I will not conceal it from you. Out of this thickly populated city with its thousands of inhabitants not one hundred people will be saved. I even doubt whether there will be as many as that!"

-Saint John Chrysostom, Father and Doctor of the Church

And on a special note to the clergy . "I do not speak rashly, but as I feel and think. I do not think that many priests are saved, but that those who perish are far more numerous."

-Saint John Chrysostom, Father and Doctor of the Church

"Christ's flock is called "little" (Luke 12:32) in comparison with the greater number of the reprobates."

-Saint Bede the Venerable, Father and Doctor of the Church

"The greater part of men will set no value on the blood of Christ, and will go on offending Him."

-Saint Isidore of Seville, Father and Doctor of the Church

"How few the Elect are may be understood from the multitude being cast out."

-Saint Hilary of Poitiers, Father and Doctor of the Church

"The majority of men shall not see God, excepting those who live justly, purified by righteousness and by every other virtue."

-Saint Justin the Martyr

"There are a select few who are saved."

-Saint Thomas Aquinas, Doctor of the Church

"The number of the elect is so small — so small — that, were we to know how small it is, we would faint away with grief: one here and there, scattered up and down the world!"

-Saint Louis Marie de Montfort

As Our lady spoke she opened her hands once more, as had during the two previous months. The rays of light seemed to penetrate the earth, and we saw as it were a sea of fire. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form, like transparent burning embers, all blackened or burnished bronze, floating about in the conflagration, now raised into the air by the flames that issued from within themselves together with great clouds of smoke, now following back on every side like sparks in huge fires, without weight or equilibrium, amid shrieks and groans of pain and despair, which horrified us and made us tremble with fear. (it must have been this sight which caused me to cry out, as people say they heard me do). The demons could be distinguished by their terrifying and repellant likeness to frightful and unknown animals, black and transparent like burning coals. terrified and as if to plead for succor, we looked up at Our Lady, who said to us, so kindly and so sadly: You have seen hell, where the souls of poor sinners go.

This isn't meant to frighten or terrify people .. it's meant to wake us up so we can avoid Hell. If the vast majority of people go to Hell .. which seems to be the consensus among the greatest minds of the Church .. then they perish because they choose to. Our Blessed Lord established the Catholic Church as the ark to save whoever would come into it before their time runs out.
