"Poverty calls us to sow hope..."

- Pope Francis

This holiday season

give the gift of hope

One in three of your neighbors are struggling to afford life's most basic needs: food, shelter, medicine, personal care items, and—in our long, cold winters—heat.

These individuals and families, right here in your community, are counting on Catholic Charities to provide help and hope, through our Emergency Financial and Heating Assistance program. We can't do it without you.

At Catholic Charities, our doors are always open to everyone. To love and care for our neighbors as ourselves means that we serve people of all faiths, and that we find a way to help everyone, even when our funding is low and the need is great.

Your prayers and financial support make this possible.

Make your gift through the special collection November 22 - 23 and help those in need this holiday season. You give more than a financial gift... you give the gift of hope at a time when it's needed the most.

Give hope this holiday season with a gift to Catholic Charities.
