

O.L.F. Year For Catholic Devotions June 2011 - June 2012

October is dedicated to the devotion of The Most Holy Rosary

Even if you are already in the pew reading this before your regular Sunday Mass, please accept our invitation to come to Mass for a second time to pray specifically for the conversion of the Heart and the salvation of the Soul of each of those persons working in the abortion industry at any level or in any capacity. Most intensely we pray for those who support, provide, or procure abortions.

Like Jesus, we condemn no one. However, this refusal to be judgmental of a person, in no way prevents us from, like Jesus, condemning an action. Jesus, speaking through His One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, CONDEMNS ABORTION.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church Re: Abortion

Abortion

2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.

2271 Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law:

2272 Formal cooperation in an abortion constitutes a grave offense. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. "A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae, (IE by the very commission of the offense) and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law. The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society.

2273 The inalienable right to life of every innocent human individual is a constitutive element of a civil society and its legislation:

2274 Since it must be treated from conception as a person, the embryo must be defended in its integrity, cared for, and healed, as far as possible, like any other human being.

The New Roman Missal : Changes in the people's parts, and their benefits

OFFERTORY RESPONSE

Priest:

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

People:

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

The meaning: It is not just the priest who offers sacrifice. The Mass is one sacrifice offered by all in unity with Christ. At the same time, each Christian present at Mass offers the sacrifice because of the priestly role given to all of us in our baptisms.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER PREFACE

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right and just.

The meaning: "It is right and just" is closer to the original Latin than "it is right to give him thanks and praise." Lifting our hearts to the Lord is not only right for a good faith life, but it's "just", i.e., God deserves it. This attitude of humble appreciation of God's superiority helps us enter into a closer relationship with God.

THE SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Scriptural source: Isaiah 6:3

The meaning: Instead of saying "God of power and might," we remember that God is Lord over heavenly "hosts" (angels) with supreme power over earthly and heavenly forces. This same power is about to change bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus.

MYSTERY OF FAITH (formerly the Memorial Acclamation)

Priest: The mystery of faith.

People: (one of the following is used)

- We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
- When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.
- Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection, you have set us free.

The meaning: The priest no longer tells us to proclaim the mystery; we proclaim it in response to the wonder and joy of the saving work of Christ, which has become present now in the Eucharist.

COMMUNION

Priest:

Behold the Lamb of God,
behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

People:

Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Scriptural sources: John 1:29; Rev. 19:9

The meaning: "Behold" is an acclamation that says, "Look! This is important! See Christ your savior in the Eucharist."

"Happy are those" has been changed to "Blessed are those" because we are blessed by the Eucharist even when we are experiencing sorrow.

Scriptural source: Matthew 8:8

The meaning: Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit. In a final act of humility, we ask Jesus to enter into us and heal whatever is not yet fully unified to his Spirit.

Devotional To Our Lady of the Rosary

O Virgin Mary, grant that the recitation of thy Rosary may be for me each day, in the midst of my manifold duties, a bond of unity in my actions, a tribute of filial piety, a sweet refreshment, an encouragement to walk joyfully along the path of duty. Grant, above all, O Virgin Mary, that the study of the twenty mysteries may form in my soul, little by little, a luminous atmosphere, pure, strengthening, and fragrant, which may penetrate my understanding, my will, my heart, my memory, my imagination, my whole being. So shall I acquire the habit of praying while I work, without the aid of formal prayers, by interior acts of admiration and of supplication, or by aspirations of love. I ask this of thee, O Queen of the Holy Rosary, through Saint Dominic, the renowned preacher of thy mysteries, and the faithful imitator of thy virtues. Amen.

Remembering that our Catholic Stewardship includes Stewardship of not only Treasure but Time and Talent as well, keep in mind that we need SERVERS, LECTORS, EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS, USHERS, as well as volunteers at our fundraising food preps, and most of all worshipers who are fully participating in the liturgical life of the parish.

October is Respect Life Month designated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.
